

Serving Immigrant Victims of Sexual Assault: Best Practices

June 26-27, 2013 Providence, RI

Taking it Home: Implementing the Tools that You have Gained Here

Remember all presentations, handouts and supplementary materials are available to you on our web library and at our go link at www.niwap.org/go/ovw-providence-2013.

	How will this workshop change how you do your work serving survivors of SA and Human Trafficking?	What information are you able to take back and share with your colleagues and/or organization?	Who will you collaborate with when you go back home and how will you strengthen existing collaborations?
Understanding and Identifying Trauma When Working with Sexual Assault Survivors

When Enough Is Too Much... Identifying the Connection between Sexual Violence and Stalking
Safety Planning with Immigrant Survivors of Sexual Assault
Justice Is More Than Jail Why (&amp; How) Lawyers and Advocates Can Use Existing Civil Laws to Meet Immigrant Sexual Assault Survivors' Most Critical Needs

Immigration Relief for Sexual Assault Survivors
How to Screen for and Respond to Sexual Violence in the Work Place
Overcoming Criminal Justice System Challenges for Immigrant SA Survivors

Finding Collaborative Partners in Serving Immigrant Survivors of Sexual Assault
Language Access for Sexual Assault Survivors and Working with Interpreters
Human Trafficking and Sexual Assault			