Jane graduated cum laude from American University, Washington College of Law and is based in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Officer Michael LaRiviere was a member of the Salem Police Department for 32 years. During this time, he spent 6 years as the Domestic Violence Liaison Officer (DVLO) responsible for domestic violence investigations, policy/procedure development, and training. Michael's work as DVLO significantly changed the way domestic violence cases are investigated in Salem and surrounding communities. Michael's work as DVLO lead to the creation of the police department's Special Crimes Unit in which investigator LaRiviere supervised for 10 years until his retirement in 2019. As a national trainer and consultant for the last 27 years, Michael has conducted extensive training and is certified through the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center to train law enforcement, medical, social services, and legal professionals on these issues. Michael currently provides consultation and technical assistance nationally and has assisted in the development of training curriculums on victim dynamics, elder abuse, immigration relief to survivors of gender-based violence, and language access for local, state, national and military audiences. Officer LaRiviere earned his B.S. in Human Services at Springfield College. He has been honored with a community award from HAWC (Help for Abused Women and Their Children) for taking concrete steps to end domestic violence and in 2002 he was recognized by the Office on Violence Against Women for his extraordinary contribution to the prevention of domestic violence. Office LaRiviere served as a member of the congressionally appointed Department of Defense Taskforce on Domestic Violence.
