

BECOME A PART OF OUR NATIONAL TRAINING TEAM

The National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project (NIWAP) (pronounced new-app) is seeking law enforcement and prosecutors with experience working with immigrant victims of domestic violence and/or sexual assault to increase the size of our team of national faculty for our Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) funded project and other national training opportunities on U and T Visa Certification, language access, and community collaboration. The OVW project provides in-person training and on-site technical assistance, webinars, and roundtables for law enforcement and prosecutors.

This training is designed to enhance law enforcement's and prosecutors' roles in protecting and serving immigrant communities and crime victims through improved language access, U visa certification and T visa endorsements.

Selected applicants will attend an in-person training event August 6-8 in Morrow, Georgia. Click to see the agendas: Day 1 and Days 2-3.

- Day One - Trainees will observe and participate in a full day training in Georgia.
- Day Two and Three - Trainees will learn to implement the curriculum and develop adult learning skills.

NIWAP will select up to 12 applicants. NIWAP's team may conduct calls with interested applicants for more information. Applicants should expect decisions by July 6, 2018.

NIWAP

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON
COLLEGE OF LAW

Law Enforcement and Prosecutor -Train the Trainer Event Summer 2018

Do you have experience working with victims of domestic violence and/or sexual assault?

Opportunity to share your experience and expertise working with Limited English Proficient and/or immigrant communities

Deadline for Applications
JUNE 15, 2018

To learn more about the project and apply, visit <http://niwap.org/go/tot2018/> or call Rocio Molina at 240-480-6378

This project is a collaboration with the National Sheriff's Association
(NSA) and AEquitas, the Prosecutor's Resource on Violence against Women

Requesting CLE and POST credits

This training is supported by Grant No. 2017-TA-AX-K063 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication/ program/ exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.