

LAW ENFORCEMENT AND PROSECUTION BEST PRACTICES:
IMMIGRANT DOMESTIC AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE VICTIMS, LANGUAGE ACCESS
AND THE U AND T VISA

Join us for a free training on U and T visa certification and language access practices to enhance law enforcement's and prosecutors' roles in protecting and serving their communities and immigrant victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.

LOCATION: PROSECUTING ATTORNEY'S COUNCIL OF GEORGIA
1590 ADAMSON PARKWAY, 4TH FLOOR, MORROW, GA 30260

DATE: AUGUST 6, 2018
TIME: 8:00 AM TO 4:30 PM

The training will provide law enforcement and prosecution agency staff with information on the U and T visa programs and the role they play in effective community policing. The training will improve attendees understanding of how investigations can be improved by using language access tools; how agencies can more effectively hold offenders accountable by using the U Visa and T Visa certification as a crime fighting tool and how the safety of law enforcement officers, victims, and the community can be strengthened building collaboration to increase the likelihood of battered immigrants to report and provide helpfulness in the criminal investigation and prosecution of the crime.

This training is a collaboration between the National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project, National Sheriffs' Association, AEquitas, and Asian Pacific Institute on Gender Based Violence and is co-sponsored by the Prosecuting Attorney's Council of Georgia.

This training will be delivered by a national team of law enforcement and prosecutor instructors and subject matter experts:

- Jane Anderson, AEquitas: The Prosecutors' Resource on Violence Against Women
- Officer Michael LaRiviere, Salem Police Department, Massachusetts
- Detective Stacy Ivie, Alexandria Police Department, Virginia
- Inspector Sgt. Antonio Flores, San Francisco Police Department, California
- Detective Shelli Sonnenberg, Boise Police Department, Idaho
- Leslye E. Orloff and Rocio Molina, National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project, American University Washington College of Law
- Wendy Lau, Senior Project Manager, Asian Pacific Institute on Gender Based Violence
