² State laws generally require that a child be under age 18 at the time he or she first is declared a juvenile court dependent. State laws vary as to how long a child can remain a juvenile court dependent once he or she has been declared a dependent. Some states end dependency at age 18, others extend it to age 19 (especially if the child must complete high school), and others potentially can extend dependency to age 21. Similarly, different states have different laws on how old a young person must be to enter or stay under juvenile court jurisdiction in a delinquency case.
