[1] Child is up to age 21 under immigration law. SIJS Children must obtain state court judicial determinations before they reach the age of majority and age out of the family or juvenile court's jurisdiction. In Idaho this age is 18. For public benefits age limit varies by benefits program see state public benefits charts.
[2] Cases filed before May 10,2026 are automatically considered for deferred action; cases file on or after that date will need to request deferred action.
[3] Time to application may vary depending on when priority date becomes current. The current backlog is approximately 5 years.
[4] Eligible for federal Medicaid having attained lawful permanent residence and having completed the 5-year bar.
[5] Must be under age 18, disabled, met the 5-year bar, or earned 40 quarters (10 years) of work credit since work authorization.
[6] Wait time is 8 months at the Boise Field Office.
