Custody Determination – Jurisdiction

§ 20-5-301 Initial child custody jurisdiction. (a) Except as otherwise provided in W.S. 20-5-304, a court of this state has jurisdiction to make an initial child custody determination only if: (i) This state is the home state of the child on the date of the commencement of the proceeding, or was the home state of the child within six (6) months before the commencement of the proceeding and the child is absent from this state but a parent or person acting as a parent continues to live in this state; (ii) A court of another state does not have jurisdiction under a provision of law from that state that is in substantial conformity with paragraph (i) of this subsection, or a court of the home state of the child has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that this state is the more appropriate forum under a provision of law from that state that is in substantial conformity with W.S. 20-5307 or 20-5-308, and: (A) The child and the child's parents, or the child and at least one (1) parent or a person acting as a parent, have a significant connection with this state other than mere physical presence; and (B) Substantial evidence is available in this state concerning the child's care, protection, training and personal relationships. (iii) All courts of another state having jurisdiction under provisions of law from that state in substantial conformity with paragraph (i) or (ii) of this subsection have declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that a court of this state is the more appropriate forum to determine the custody of the child under a provision of law from that state that is in substantial conformity with W.S. 20-5-307 or 20-5-308; or (iv) No court of any other state would have jurisdiction under the criteria specified in paragraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of this subsection. (b) Subsection (a) of this section shall be the exclusive jurisdictional basis for making a child custody determination by a court of this state. (c) Physical presence of, or personal jurisdiction over, a party or a child shall not be necessary or sufficient to make a child custody determination.

Custody Determination – Service/Notification Requirements

§ 20-5-305 Notice; opportunity to be heard; joinder. (a) Before a child custody determination is made under this act, notice and an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the standards of W.S. 20-5-208 shall be given to all persons entitled to notice under the law of this state as in child custody proceedings between residents of this state, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated and any person having physical custody of the child. (b) This act shall not govern the enforceability of a child custody determination made without notice or an opportunity to be heard. (c) The obligation to join a party and the right to intervene as a party in a child custody proceeding under this act are governed by the law of this state as in child custody proceedings between residents of this state.

Paternity and Child Support Proceeding – Jurisdiction

A "Child custody proceeding" includes proceedings for paternity, abuse, neglect, dependency, guardianship, termination of parental rights or protection from domestic abuse. We note that the provisions in the Wyoming UCCJEA does not address jurisdiction or service/notification requirements for "Child custody proceedings" (rather, it only addresses "Child custody determinations", so there are no special requirements for these proceedings. The payment of child support is explicitly carved out from the definition of "child custody determination" in the Wyoming UCCJEA, so there are no special jurisdictional or service/notification requirements.
