

Strengthening Community and Organizational Responses: Serving Immigrant Victims of Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking

8:00 am to 4:00 pm

Prophet Center -PPS
501 N Dixon St
Portland, Oregon 97227

Immigrant victims of crime are often reluctant to call the police for help or to participate in the criminal justice process. In cases involving domestic and sexual violence, the barriers are compounded, as victims often face immigration-related abuse and threats of deportation.

Wednesday, October 4, 2023 - For Law Enforcement, Prosecutors, and System-Based Advocates - DPSST approved

This training will provide law enforcement, prosecutors, and system-based advocates with information on the U and T visa programs and their role in building trust and enhancing victim and community safety.

Thursday, October 5, 2023 -For Advocates, System-Based Advocates, and Attorneys

This training will strengthen participants' understanding of legal rights, victim services options, and best practices when working with immigrant survivors. Training topics will include immigration remedies, public benefits, family law, VAWA confidentiality, multidisciplinary collaboration, and improving language access

REGISTER HERE

If you need assistance with registration or have any questions, please contact
Natasha Haunsperger (503) 969-4457
or email

Natasha.Haunsperger@police.portlandoregon.gov

This project was supported by Grant No 15JOVW-22-GK-04002-MUMU awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this program are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.