

Let's Put Science First: Assessing Predatory Helpfulness and Coercive Control to More Accurately Understand Domestic Abuse and Sex Trafficking - Training Materials¹

December 8, 2023

NIWAP offers a full library of SJI supported materials for courts at <http://niwaplibrary.wcl.american.edu/training-manual-for-courts-table-of-contents/>

NIWAP also offers technical assistance for judges and court staff. Find out how to receive NIWAP's technical assistance from NIWAP's experts and judicial faculty here. If you are a judge or judicial faculty, please consider joining our National Judicial Network. You can find more information about the National Judicial Network here.

If you are a victim advocate, attorney, judge, or other professional working with an immigrant victim and you would like to receive case specific technical assistance on custody cases involving immigrant crime victims or immigrant children, please call NIWAP for technical assistance. (202) 274-4457 or email us at info@niwap.org. You can also visit the family law section of NIWAP's web library <https://niwaplibrary.wcl.american.edu/family-law-protections-training-materials>

To receive updates, sign up for NIWAP's outreach list.

You can elect NIWAP's general outreach list to receive notices of trainings, webinars, new materials, resources and policies. Judges, court staff, law enforcement and prosecutors can sign up for lists exclusively open to staff working at one of these government agencies.

Communities of Practice: NIWAP runs several Roundtables and Communities of Practice that provide opportunities for peer-to-peer learning by meeting virtually several times a year with others from across the country working in your profession and serving immigrant victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, stalking, and human trafficking. For each, membership is limited to that profession. Please join and encourage others in your community to join:
