About the Program

Through the Trafficking Victims Assistance Program, survivors of human trafficking can heal, get the justice they deserve and have safe and empowered lives.

If you answer yes to any of these questions, please give us a call.

- Has anyone forced or pressured you to touch them or someone else sexually in exchange for safety, money or something of value?
- Have you ever worked (or did other activities) without getting the payment you thought you would get or were promised?
- Did anyone where you worked (or did other activities) threaten you or someone you care about?

Human trafficking includes labor trafficking, sex trafficking, debt bondage, domestic servitude and child forced labor.

Who We Help

Foreign nationals of human trafficking, including, women, men and children.

How We Can Help

- Assistance with basic needs: food, clothing, housing and transportation
- Assistance in finding emergency, transitional and long-term housing
